History of the Pittsburgh Pirates

A "new century of hardball" begins in 1987 as the Pittsburgh Pirates celebrate their 100th anniversary as a member of the National League.

The Pirates' roots in Pittsburgh actually stretch back to April 15, 1876, when the Pittsburgh Alleghenies brought professional baseball to the city by playing their first game at Union Park. In 1882, the Alleghenies joined the American Association, the major league rival of the National League, and gained acceptance into the prestigious National League in 1887.

Most of the Alleghenies' stars jumped to the Players (Brotherhood) League in 1890 in a dispute over low salaries. The Players League was disbanded shortly thereafter and players were ordered to return to their original teams. Pittsburgh received the nickname "Pirates" at that time when they were accused of "pirating" a player from the Philadelphia club.

In 1891, the new Pittsburgh Pirates took over Exposition Park on the north side of the Allegheny River, in approximately the same location that Three Rivers Stadium occupies today. The Pirates remained at Exposition Park until a dream was realized by owner Barney Dreyfuss when he opened the gates to Forbes Field, the first steel-structured stadium, on June 30, 1909.

Bill Benswanger succeeded his father-in-law, Dreyfuss, as Pirate President, upon the latter's death in 1932, and remained in that capacity until August 8, 1946 when John Galbreath teamed with Tom Johnson, Frank McKinney and entertainer Bing Crosby to purchase the club from the Benswanger family. McKinney sold his interest to Galbreath and Johnson in 1950, and Galbreath purchased Johnson's shares in early 1982.

The Galbreaths held 51 percent of the club's stock when they were joined in the Pirate family by Warner Communications in January, 1983. The entertainment conglomerate purchased 48 percent of the Pirate stock.

A new chapter unfolded in Pirates' history on October 2, 1985 when it was announced that a group of private and public investors, committed to keeping the team in Pittsburgh, had reached an agreement in principle to purchase the Pirates from the Galbreath family and Warner Communications.

Pittsburgh Associates is made up of 13 investors, representing nine corporations and four individuals. The group includes Aluminum Company of America, Carnegie Mellon University, Eugene and Raymond Litman, John McConnell, Mellon Bank, N.A., National Intergroup, Inc., PNC Financial Corporation, PPG Industries, Inc., Ryan Homes, Inc., Frank J. Schneider, USX Corporation, Harvey M. Walken, and Westinghouse Electric Corporation.

Under the direction of Malcolm M. Prince, President and Chief Executive Officer of the new ownership, the Pirates have already made strides toward re-establishing themselves in the National League as well as in the community.

The history of Pittsburgh baseball, a tradition of over 100 years, is one filled with world championships, division titles, All-Star games, Hall of Fame representatives and other highlights.

The Alleghenies defeated Chicago, 6-2, in their National League debut on April 30, 1887, but it wasn't a signal of things to come during the rest of the 19th century. In fact, the 1890 team set a record for most losses by a Pittsburgh team, finishing 23-113, and for its first 13 seasons in the senior circuit Pittsburgh's highest finish was a second-place showing in 1893 when the most remembered name on the club was a 31-year-old catcher named Connie Mack. "The Tall Taclician" later managed the Pirates (from Sept. of 1894 thru the 1896 season) but didn't enjoy the success he was able to achieve in 50 seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics, beginning in 1901.

Pittsburgh fortunes took a turn for the better in January of 1900 when the chief assets of the Louisville franchise were sold to Pittsburgh after the former was dropped by the National League. In the largest player transaction in Pirates history, Dreyfuss acquired 14 players including Hall of Famers Honus Wagner, Fred Clarke and Rube Waddell, plus standouts Deacon Phillippe, Chief Zimmer, Claude Ritchey and Tommy Leach. All played significant roles as the Pirates rose to power in the dawning years of this century, winning the National League pennant in 1901, 1902, and 1903.

Dreyfuss, one of the pioneers of the game, is sometimes called the father of the World Series because he boldly challenged the American League champion Boston Red Sox to a post-season playoff in 1903 to determine who was the best team. On Oct 1, 1903, Deacon Phillippe defeated the Red Sox' Cy Young, 7-3, in the first World Series game played. Boston, however, emerged as the series winner, overcoming a three games to one deficit, to win five times in the eight-game series.

The Pirates finished runner-up three times in the next five years before getting another shot at a World Series title in 1909. The Bucs won a club record 110 games that year under the direction of manager Clarke and went on to edge Detroit four games to three in a World Series that featured league batting champions Wagner and Ty Cobb, two of the original group of five players elected to baseball's Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y. in 1936.

In the 1920s, Forbes Field was described as "the Hialeah of ball parks." It was here on Oct 15, 1925 that Kiki Cuyler's bases-loaded double in the eighth inning gave the Pirates a 9-7 win over Walter Johnson and the Washington Senators in the seventh game of the World Series, capping a comeback that saw the Pirates rally from a three games to one deficit to win their second World Series in their third appearance in the Fall Classic. The Pirates emerged as N.L. champs again two years later, but this time were swept in four straight by the 1927 New York Yankees, featuring Lou Gehrig and Babe Ruth and regarded by many as the finest team in the history of the game.

Pittsburgh fans had to endure some lean years, standings-wise, in the next 33 years, but the 1960 season was well worth the wait. Danny Murtaugh's team finished 95-59, seven games better than the Milwaukee Braves. As in their last World Series appearance, the Pirates were matched against a powerful Yankee lineup, this one featuring Mickey Mantle, Roger Maris and Bill Skowron. The Yankees won Games Two (16-3), Three (10-0), and Six (12-0) by large margins. The Pirates won Games One (6-4), Four (3-2), Five (5-2) and Seven (10-9). The Series was won on the most memorable at-bat in Pittsburgh history when Bill Mazeroski homered off Ralph Terry to lead off the ninth inning, breaking a 9-9 deadlock.

The colorful history of Forbes Field spanned six decades and came to an end on June 28, 1970 when the Pirates played their final game in the great ballpark. On July 16 of that year the Pirates entered the era of the multi-purpose stadium when they played their first game at Three Rivers Stadium. The Pirates managed Three Rivers Stadium until January, 1983, when the City of Pittsburgh took over control of the facility. With the city takeover came a number of major improvements, including installation of new Astroturf, the addition of 5,000 seats and 37 new private lounge boxes and the unveiling of the DiamondVision video screen.

The Pirates were one of baseball's most successful teams in the 1970s. They amassed a 916-695 won-lost record from 1970-79 for a .569 winning percentage. Over that span, the Bucs won six division championships, two National League pennants and two more World Championships (1971 and 1979, both against the Baltimore Orioles). They were the only National League team to finish no lower than third place in a season during the '70s, and the only third place finish came in 1973.

Pittsburgh has played host to three All-Star games, and the National League has emerged as the winner in each. Forbes Field hosted the 1944 game and the first of two 1959 All-Star clashes. Three Rivers Stadium hosted the 1974 mid-summer classic.

Pirate Hall of Famers include Wagner, Clarke, Pie Traynor, Paul Waner, Max Carey, Bill McKechnie, Lloyd Waner, Branch Rickey, Cuyler, Roberto Clemente, Ralph Kiner, and Arky Vaughan, plus several others who spent parts of their careers as Pirates.

Besides the championships, Pirate fans have had much to cheer about over the years. A few of the highlights include Wagner's eight N.L. batting titles, Kiner's seven consecutive home run championships, Dale Long's streak of homers in eight consecutive games in 1956, Harvey Haddix' 12-inning perfect game in 1959, ElRoy Face's 18 straight wins in relief in 1959, Clemente's 3,000th hit in 1972, Willie Stargell's 475 homers including seven which cleared the roof at Forbes Field and four which reached the upper deck at Three Rivers Stadium, and Rennie Stennett's 7-for-7 performance in a game at Chicago in 1975.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

An integral part of the organization, the Pirates take great pride in their Community Relations Program.

Among the newest and most successful tools is the "Pirates in the Community" program which completed its second season during the past winter. Because only a small percentage of Pirate players make Pittsburgh their year-round home, the Pirates brought 11 players back during the winter to participate in a series of one-week stays designed specifically to make appearances in the area.

Bill Almon, Mike Bielecki, Barry Bonds, Sid Bream, Mike Diaz, Brian Fisher, Barry Jones, Bob Kipper, Joe Orsulak, Johnny Ray, and Rick Reuschel participated in the program which ran from November until the start of the club's two-week caravan on February 2. These players were involved in a variety of activities such as visiting area schools, hospitals, and industries, appearing on local radio and TV shows, at malls, banquets and luncheons, and conducting baseball clinics.

The Pirates' annual caravan was conducted from Feb. 2-13 and made stops in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio and Maryland. Manager Jim Leyland, plus Don Robinson, Bielecki, Diaz, R.J. Reynolds and Reuschel, broadcasters Lanny Frattare and Jim Rooker, and the Pirate Parrot participated in the 1987 caravan.

Another successful venture in 1986 was the series of Pirate/Giant Eagle Neighborhood Baseball Clinics, conducted for the second straight season on Saturday mornings when the team was home.

Many members of the organization are involved in non-profit organizations and charity work throughout the year. In addition, the Pirates have conducted programs for the handicapped, the young, the old, and the disadvantaged, with many of these programs providing complimentary tickets to many of their home games.

Anyone interested in having the Pirates getting involved with their community or organization can contact Patty Paytas in the Pirates' Community Relations Department, Three Rivers Stadium, Pittsburgh, PA 15212 (412-323-5070).

MALCOLM M. PRINE

President and Chief Executive Officer

When Malcolm M. "Mac" Prine was named President and Chief Executive Officer of Pittsburgh Associates, he stressed the commitment of the new ownership to re-establish the Pirates as a strong contender in the National League and to develop the kind of team that can earn the support and respect of the community both on and off the field.

The Pirates have already made progress toward those goals since October 2, 1985.

That morning it was announced that a group of 13 private and public investors had reached an agreement in principle to purchase the club from the Galbreath family and Warner Communications.

While the re-establishment process continues, the Pirates have taken strides with new strategies designed to improve both their playing performance and to establish a stronger commitment and identity with the community.

A native of Columbus, OH, Prine attended Ohio University as an undergraduate and completed Law School at Ohio State University in 1952. From 1952 to 1962 he was engaged in the practice of law in Columbus.

From 1962 to 1986 he was with Ryan Homes, Inc., the last 15 years as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, a position he vacated last December shortly after Ryan Homes was sold to NVHomes L.P. of McLean, VA.

Prine continues to serve on Ryan's Board of Directors. He also serves on the Board of Directors of PNC Financial Corp., the H.H. Robertson Company, and Equitable Resources, Inc. He is also active with numerous civic and charitable organizations.

SYD THRIFT

Senior V.P. and G.M. for Baseball Operations

On November 7, 1985, the Pittsburgh Pirates appointed Syd Thrift to head up their baseball operations, a move which signaled many new things to come.

Thrift has brought many fresh concepts and ideas to the Pirates. He is constantly searching for ways to improve every phase of the operation, as well as the performances of each player.

Last spring for example, the Pirates instituted a STEP (Specialization Training Early Program) camp in which 24 minor leaguers reported to camp on the same day as the major league pitchers and catchers. Players received individualized instruction geared at speeding their progress thru the system, and two players (Rich Sauveur and Hipolito Pena) made it to the major leagues. Last fall the Pirates fielded two Florida Instructional League teams, with a total of 73 players receiving individualized instruction.

Some other new approaches include a "visualization program" (designed to eliminate the inaccuracies in the way something is seen, and to improve concentration), and classes in subjects such as financial planning, tax laws, nutrition, public speaking, and drugs and how they affect performances.

There is also an upgrading of instruction in the major league camp, something that doesn't end when the team leaves Florida. "I'm a believer of instruction at all levels of the game, and it doesn't stop when a player gets to the major leagues," Thrift said the day he was appointed to his current post.

Each player now has a specific year-round conditioning program designed for his body type and specialized baseball needs. "What I've found is that players work diligently on conditioning to get to the major leagues," Thrift said. "Then, when they reach that plateau, they stop doing what got them there."

A native of Virginia, Thrift brings over 26 years of professional baseball experience to the Pirates, including 11 years (1957-67) with the Pirates as a scouting supervisor and spring training instructor.

Syd began his baseball career in 1949 as a lefthanded pitcher and first baseman in the New York Yankee farm system. In 1951 and 1952, he was player-manager of the U.S. Army team in Ft. Eustis (VA), a club which included Willie Mays, Vernon Law and other major leaguers.

From 1953 to 1956, he served as a part-time scout for the Yankees and the Pirates, while employed as a high school teacher, coach and guidance counselor. The following year he became a scouting supervisor with the Pirates.

During his first tour of duty with the Pirates, Thrift helped to sign and develop the players who would go on to win two World Series and six division titles in the 1970s. He was instrumental in signing such players as Al Oliver, Bob Robertson, Woodie Fryman, and Don Money.

His speciality is the procurement and development of young baseball talent. Following the '67 season, he joined the Kansas City Royals, where he was a scouting director and the founding Director of the Royals' renowned Baseball Academy, which produced 14 major leaguers, including current K.C. star Frank White.

As Director of the Academy from 1969 to 1972, Thrift innovated a system of player procurement and development which was unique in scope and design. In addition, the Academy was innovative in a number of new baseball concepts, including the time-measured lead, the aerodynamics of the baseball in flight and its effect on pitching and hitting, and advanced physical conditioning programs.

From 1975 to 1976 he worked for the Oakland A's, during which time he was involved with the procurement of Rickey Henderson, among others. He worked closely with A's owner Charles O. Finley in all matters and was responsible for the day-to-day operation of the club.

He left professional baseball in 1976 to enter the real estate business in Fairfax, VA. In 1982 he opened Syd Thrift and Associates, Inc. Realtors, which has become an extremely prosperous real estate firm.

While serving that company as president and chief executive officer, he remained active in baseball. In 1981, he conducted baseball clinics in Sweden, Denmark and Finland under the sanction of the Commissioner's Office and the U.S. Baseball Federation. During those years he was involved with baseball at all levels, organizing and conducting instructional clinics, recommending players and helping amateur coaches.

PERSONAL: Sydnor W. Thrift, Jr. . . . Born on 2/25/29 . . . Wife's name is Dolly . . . Two sons; Jim (24) and Mark (21) . . . Son Jim played in the Oakland A's organization . . . Syd received his B.A. degree from Randolph-Macon (VA) College . . . Does numerous speaking engagements . . . His half hour pre-game radio show, heard each Sunday last season, was very popular . . . Enjoys quail and duck hunting.

BERNARD J. MULLIN

Senior Vice President For Business Operations

In his new position as Senior Vice President for Business Operations, Dr. Bernie Mullin oversees the direction and coordination of the Pirates' marketing, promotions, public relations, ticket management, stadium operations, and administration.

A native of England, Mullin was named to his current position on October 6, 1986. He came to the U.S. in 1973 after working in management positions for British Leyland Motor Corp. (two years) and Serck Tubes Ltd. (one year). He later earned his M.S., M.B.A., and Ph.D. degrees at the U. of Kansas.

Mullin comes to Pittsburgh from Deerfield, MA where he was President of National Sports Management (NSM) for seven years and a professor at the U. of Massachusetts in Amherst for nine years.

With NSM, Mullin provided management, marketing and public relations services to a variety of sports organizations. He was a marketing consultant to the Pirates during the 1986 season.

At the U. of Massachusetts he was a professor of sports management and marketing. His textbook, titled "Sports Marketing, Promotions and Public Relations," is currently being used in many collegiate sports administration programs.

THE MANAGER

JIM LEYLAND (MGR)

1987 OPENING DAY AGE: 42

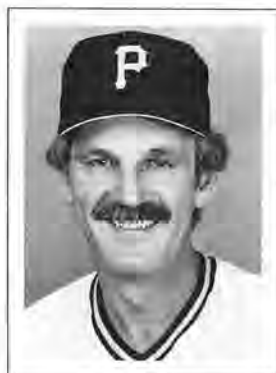

BORN: Dec. 15, 1944 in Toledo, OH

RESIDES: Pittsburgh, PA

HEIGHT: 6'0" WEIGHT: 180

BATS: Right THROWS: Right

PLAYING POSITION: Catcher

Jim Leyland enters his second season at the helm of the Pittsburgh Pirates hoping his team will be "less exciting and more consistent," than it was in his rookie campaign.

While the Pirates lost 98 games in Leyland's rookie year, and finished in sixth place in the N.L. East for the third straight season, there was still noticeable improvement in 1986. Most of the improvement came offensively, with the club improving statistically in nearly every category thanks to an aggressive attack. "We're in the entertainment business. People tend to forget that," Leyland said when he joined the Pirates. "As a manager, I may like a 1-0 game . . . but the fans are bored by it."

Known for his feisty and energetic personality, Leyland has been described as an intense competitor, but one who is able to put those around him at ease. He quickly established authority in the Pirate clubhouse, while at the same time maintaining a good rapport with his players as well as those in the front office.

Pirate GM Syd Thrift cited Leyland's successful track record at every level, his dedication and his ability to teach when announcing Leyland's appointment. Tigers' GM Bill Lajoie described him as being creative, a manager who always comes up with a new way to get a runner home. Former White Sox' GM Ken Harrelson said he has every quality you want in a manager — knowledge, patience and guts.

Leyland's appointment on Nov. 20, 1985, followed over 22 years of professional experience, including 11 as a manager in the Detroit Tigers' farm system. He joined the Pirates after four seasons as the Chicago White Sox' third base coach and outfield instructor. He had been regarded as one of the finest third base coaches in the A.L. and had long been considered an outstanding major league managerial candidate.

A catcher during his playing days, Leyland signed his first professional contract with the Detroit organization in the fall of 1963 and served in the Tigers' organization as a player, minor league coach and minor league manager until joining the White Sox for the 1982 season.

After serving as a player from 1964 thru 1969, he was appointed coach at Montgomery (Class AA Southern League) in 1970. In 1971, at the age of 26, he received his first managerial assignment, taking over the Tigers' Bristol club of the Appalachian Rookie League. A manager in the Kansas City Royals' farm system for eight seasons after retiring as an active player, Lamont spent the final two seasons of his managerial career with the Royals' Omaha club in the Class AAA American Association. Three of his eight teams advanced to the playoffs and 10 players on the 1985 World Champion Royals club played for Lamont in the K.C. farm system.

A catcher during his playing days, Lamont was the Tigers' first round pick in the June 1965 free agent draft (the 13th player picked overall). He spent all but three months of his playing career with the Detroit organization and made a big impression in his major league debut by homering in his first at-bat off the Red Sox' Cal Koonce on 9/2/70.

Gene spent the entire 1974 season with the Tigers and parts of four other campaigns with Detroit. He compiled a lifetime .233 average in 87 major league games with four homers and 14 runs batted in.

After closing out his playing career in 1977 with the Tigers' Evansville (Class AAA) club he began his managerial career with the Royals' Ft. Myers club in the Class A Florida State League in 1978, leading that team to playoffs.

In 1982 he was named the Southern League's Manager of the Year and his clubs went to the playoffs in two of his four seasons there. 39 MILT MAY (Coach)

1987 OPENING DAY AGE: 36

BORN: Aug. 1, 1950 in Gary, IN

RESIDES: Bradenton, FL

HEIGHT: 6'0" WEIGHT: 190

PLAYING POSITION: Catcher

Former major league catcher Milt May was named as the Pirates' hitting instructor on November 11, 1986.

The son of former major league infielder Merrill "Pinky" May, Milt spent 14 full seasons in the major leagues, retiring after the 1984 campaign. After spending one year as vice president of a bank in Bradenton, FL, he worked in the Pirate organization last year as the club's advance scout, as a roving catching and hitting instructor in the minor league system, and as a manager and instructor in the Florida Instructional League.

Selected by the Pirates in the June, 1968 free agent draft, May made his major league debut in 1970, playing in five games at the age of 20. He played three full seasons for the Pirates, then played for Houston, Detroit, the Chicago White Sox and San Francisco, before being reacquired by the Pirates in August of 1983. He compiled a .263 lifetime batting mark in 1192 major league games with 77 home runs and 443 runs batted in.

During his minor league career he was named to his league's all-star squad each year — Gulf Coast Rookie League in 1968, Western Carolinas League in 1969 and International League in 1970.

In 1971, at the age of 21, he delivered a game-winning pinch-single in Game Four of the World Series vs. Baltimore. Ray Miller, one of the most respected pitching mentors in baseball, was named Pirates' pitching coach on October 20, 1986.

Miller, who formerly managed the Minnesota Twins, is best known for his successful stint as pitching coach of the Baltimore Orioles. In seven and a half seasons (1978-85) in that role he coached two Cy Young Award winners (Mike Flanagan and Steve Stone) and five 20-game winners (Jim Palmer, Flanagan, Stone, Scott McGregor and Mike Boddicker). Baltimore also appeared in the World Series twice during his stay there (1979 and 1983).

Miller, who reported immediately to the Florida Instructional League last fall after his appointment to the Pirate staff, will oversee the development of the young pitchers in the organization, a vital part of the club's rebuilding process.

Originally signed by the San Francisco Giants, Miller began his pro career in 1964, playing for Lexington in the Western Carolinas League. He led the league in shutouts, was second in ERA and pitched a no-hitter in a 0-0 game called by rain after 8 IP on 8/3 that year and was drafted by the Cleveland organization following the season. He was traded to the Baltimore organization in May of 1971 and ended his playing career with the Orioles' Rochester (AAA) club in 1973, a year in which he became a player-coach. He finished his pro career with a record of 60-65.

From 1974 thru 1977 he served as Baltimore's minor league pitching instructor, then joined the Orioles at the major league level for the 1978 season. On June 21, 1985 he became manager of the Minnesota Twins. The club went 50-50 under his direction in his first year and was 59-80 in 1986 when he was replaced on September 12.

PLAYING POSITION: Infield

Following an outstanding five-year stint as a manager in the Pirate farm system, Tommy Sandt was rewarded by being named as the Pirates' first base coach on October 16, 1986.

A former major league infielder, Sandt was a player-coach for the Pirates' Portland (AAA) club in 1980 and 1981 prior to a two-year term as manager of the Pirates' AA entry in the Eastern League. In 1982 Buffalo finished 55-84. The club moved to Lynn (MA) in 1983 and finished in second place with a 77-62 mark, advancing to the Eastern League championship series, and earning Sandt a promotion to the AAA level as manager of the Pirates' Hawaii club in the Pacific Coast League.

Sandt led the Islanders to the best mark in AAA baseball in each of his first two seasons at Hawaii. In 1984 he was named PCL Manager of the Year after Hawaii finished 87-53 (.621) overall, winning the second-half Southern Division title enroute to the PCL Championship Series. BASEBALL AMERICA also honored him that year as AAA Manager of the Year. In 1985 the Islanders posted a mark of 84-59 (.587) overall, winning the first-half Southern Division crown. Last season Hawaii was 65-79 (.451) overall, giving Tommy a three-year AAA mark of 236-191 (.553). In five seasons as a minor league manager his teams compiled a record of 368-337 (.522), advancing three times to post-season play.

Primarily a shortstop, Sandt spent most of his playing career in the Oakland A's organization. He was Oakland's second round selection in the June 1969 free agent draft and was named as the Northwest League's Player of the Year that year. He made his major league debut in 1975 with the A's, appearing in one game, after finishing fourth in the PCL in batting and leading league shortstops in fielding (.956). He then spent the entire 1976 season with Oakland, playing in 41 contests.

He was signed as a free agent by St. Louis on May 31, 1977. The Pittsburgh organization acquired him in a deal for pitcher John Stuper on Jan. 25, 1979.

DID YOU KNOW . . . That former Pirates Dave Parker (in 1976) and Willie Stargell (in 1979) both won National League Most Valuable Player awards in years in which they were not selected to play in the All-Star Game. Only two other MVPs have not been selected for the mid-summer classic — Detroit first baseman Hank Greenberg, A.L. MVP in 1935, and Brooklyn pitcher Don Newcombe, N.L. MVP in 1956

DID YOU KNOW . . . That Pie Traynor had just 58 homers in his career, yet drove in 1273 runs. Traynor had seven 100-RBI seasons, but only one double figure home run year (12 in 1923). In 1931 Traynor drove in 103 runs with the aid of just two homers. In 1928 he hit three homers and drove in 124 runs.

The Tradition Continues

KDKA-TV has been broadcasting Pirate Baseball ever since 1955 — longer than any other station has televised any other team.

In 1987, John Sanders and Steve Blass continue this proud tradition.

Don't miss a moment of the Pirates' Second Century of Hardball.

PIRATE BROADCASTERS

Lanny Frattare

The senior member of the Pirate broadcast team, Lanny Frattare is in his 12th season behind the KDKA microphones. Only Bob Prince and Rosey Rowswell have described Pirate action longer than Lanny. A native of Rochester, NY, Frattare received his B.S. degree in communications from Ithaca (NY) College in 1970. From 1968 thru 1974, he served as sports director of WBBF-Radio in Rochester and worked for two winters (1974-75) as a play-by-play announcer for a Rochester TV station. His baseball broadcasting career began in 1968 when he did play-by-play for the Geneva (NY) Senators in the Class A New York-Penn League, and in 1970 he handled some of the Rochester Red Wings' International League telecasts. Frattare's association with the Pirates began in 1974 when he served as a broadcaster for the Charleston Charlies, the Pirates' AAA International League affiliate. He worked the Charlies' games for two years before joining the Pirates' broadcast crew in 1976. Lanny enjoys golf, presidential history and music and he and his wife Liz are both involved in a number of Pittsburgh area civic and charity projects. Lanny also works closely with the Pirates Community Relations Dept. The Frattares reside in Upper St. Clair with their two children, David and Megan.

Jim Rooker

Jim Rooker is in his seventh year of broadcasting Pirate games on KDKA. A former lefthanded pitcher, Rooker won 103 major league games, including 82 with the Pirates. Born in Lakeview, OR, Jim was raised in Southern California. Signed originally by Detroit as an outfielder, he didn't begin pitching on a regular basis until 1965. In 1968 he made his major league debut and pitched in two games for the World Champion Tigers. The Kansas City Royals drafted him in the third round of the expansion draft following the '68 campaign and he remained with Kansas City until October 25, 1972, when he was acquired by the Pirates. "Rook" averaged 13 wins per season in his first five years as a Pirate. He will best be remembered as the Pirates' starting pitcher in Game 5 of the 1979 World Series against the Baltimore Orioles. With his club down three-games-to-one, Rooker allowed only one run over five innings while battling Oriole ace Mike Flanagan to a standoff, before the Pirates came back to win the game and go on to win the series in seven games. Bothered by arm problems throughout the '79 season, Rooker spent five months on the disabled list in 1980 before retiring at the end of the season. Jim enjoys golf, hunting, and traveling. He and his wife Betty have three children — David (a pitcher in the Pirates' farm system), Stephanie and Jami; they also have two grandchildren. The Rookers reside in Library, PA.

DID YOU KNOW . . . KDKA Radio and KDKA-TV are in their 33rd consecutive year with the Pirates, having originated broadcasts in each year since 1955 . . . KDKA Radio broadcast the first baseball game ever, when Harold Arlin was behind the microphone on August 5, 1921 when the Pirates played the Phillies.

John Sanders

John Sanders, KDKA-TV Sports Director, is in his sixth full season on the KDKA broadcast team, having begun broadcasting Buc games as a fill-in for Lanny Frat-tare on some 1980 telecasts. A native of Manhattan, KS, Sanders keeps a very active schedule which has him busy broadcasting various sports events around the world from golf tournaments in Japan to Pirate broadcasts around the U.S. John received his bachelor's degree from Kansas State University in 1965. He spent 12 years at KMBC-TV in Kansas City, MO, where he was presented with the Missouri Broadcasting Assn. Sports Reporting Award in 1974 and 1976. John joined the KDKA-TV staff in February, 1978, as the weekend sports anchor and was named sports director of the station in 1980. Along with his work on Pirate broadcasts, John also works on numerous assignments for ESPN, and is sports editor of KDKA Radio's daily "Ninety to Six" report. John, his wife Cherie, and their two children, Gabrielle and Hillary, reside in Mt. Lebanon.

Steve Blass

Former Pirate righthander Steve Blass joined the KDKA-TV and TCI Cable Pirate broadcast crews in 1986. A native of Canaan, CT, Steve began his association with the Pirates when he signed his first professional contract in June of 1960. In 10 major league seasons (1964-74) with the Pirates, he compiled a record of 103-76 in 282 games, and ranks seventh on the Pirates' all-time list in strikeouts (896) and 14th in wins (103). A member of the 1972 All-Star team, Blass won 78 games in a five-year period between 1968 and 1972. Steve was a Pirate hero in the 1971 World Series against Baltimore when he picked up complete game wins in Games 3 and 7. After retiring following the 1974 season, Steve remained in Pittsburgh and worked in private business in the city, and is currently employed by the Frank B. Fuhrer Company. In 1982 he worked with Bob Prince on Pirate cable telecasts, and was retained when the cable rights were secured by Home Sports Entertainment in 1983. Steve and his wife Karen have two sons, David and Christopher, and reside in Upper St. Clair.

PIRATES WHO HAVE HIT FOR THE CYCLE

Hitting for the cycle (a single, double, triple, and home run in the same game) is a feat that has been accomplished 20 times by 17 different Pittsburgh players since the team's inception into the National League in 1887. Fred Clarke, Arky Vaughan, and Wally Westlake achieved the feat two times each. Westlake was the last to do it at home (at Forbes Field in 1949), and it has been accomplished just three times since the 1951 season. The full list is carried below.

Note—In some cases, innings pitched and ERA do not match career totals in individual biographies. Prior to 1982, innings pitched were rounded off to the nearest whole inning (133.2 to 134) and ERA was calculated off the whole number. Beginning in 1982, innings pitched were listed exactly, including thirds of innings, and ERA was calculated from that exact figure. The figures shown in pitchers' statistical breakdown section reflect exact totals for all years.

PIRATES RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

NO. 1 — BILLY MEYER . . . Born, January 14, 1892 in Knoxville, Tenn., died March 31, 1957 in Knoxville. Threw and batted righthanded. A catcher with the White Sox and Athletics (1913, 1916-17), Meyer won eight pennants as a manager of minor league clubs from 1926 through 1947 before becoming Pirate manager in 1948. Known for his rapport with players, fans and the press, Meyer managed in Pittsburgh for five seasons, compiling a record of 317-452. He was The Sporting News Manager of the Year in 1948 when the Bucs compiled a record of 83-71. Following his five-year tenure as Pirate manager, Meyer was a Pittsburgh scout for three years.

NO. 8 — WILLIE STARGELL . . . Born, March 6, 1940 in Earlsboro, Okla. Threw and batted lefthanded. "Pops" compiled a remarkable career in a 21-year span from 1962 through 1982 with the Pirates. In 2,360 games he batted .282 with 475 home runs, seven home runs in post-season play, and 1,540 RBI. The Bucs' all-time home run, RBI and extra base hits king, Willie also ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in games, at-bats, runs, hits, singles, doubles and total bases. Willie was a seven-time All-Star pick. In 1979 he was the N.L.'s co-MVP and the MVP in the LCS and World Series.

NO. 20 — PIE TRAYNOR . . . Born, November 11, 1899 in Framingham, Mass., died March 16, 1972 in Pittsburgh. Threw and batted righthanded. Harold (Pie) Traynor was one of the finest third basemen in major league history, earning that reputation in a 17-year playing career spent entirely with the Pirates (1920-1935, 37). Regarded as an outstanding defensive player, Traynor was also adept with the bat, compiling a lifetime .320 average. While he hit just 58 home runs, he managed to drive in 1,273 runs. Pie ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in games, at-bats, runs, hits, singles, doubles, triples, total bases, RBI, extra-base hits, batting average and stolen bases. The Hall of Famer (inducted in 1948) also managed the Pirates from 1934 through 1939.

NO. 21 — ROBERTO CLEMENTE . . . Born, August 18, 1934 in Carolina, P.R., died December 31, 1972 in San Juan, P.R. Threw and batted right-handed. A Hall of Famer (inducted in 1973), Roberto Clemente was selected by the Pirates in the player draft when the Brooklyn Dodgers left him unprotected after the 1954 season, his first as a professional. For the next 18 years Clemente starred in the Pirate outfield. He won four N.L. batting crowns and batted .317 in his career, with 240 home runs and 1,305 RBI. He also won 12 Gold Glove Awards. He hit safely in all seven games in both the 1960 and 1971 World Series, winning the Series MVP Award in 1971 when he batted .414 with two homers and two doubles against Baltimore. Clemente was a 12-time All-Star and the N.L. MVP in 1966. He ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in 12 offensive categories. He died with four others when a plane carrying supplies to earthquake-stricken Nicaragua crashed.

NO. 33 — HONUS WAGNER . . . Born, February 24, 1874 in Carnegie, Pa., died December 6, 1955 in Carnegie. Threw and batted righthanded. One of five players originally elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1936, Honus Wagner is widely regarded as the best shortstop to ever play the game. "The Flying Dutchman" won eight N.L. batting crowns, second only to Ty Cobb's 12 titles during a 17-year stretch in which he batted over .300 in each season. Wagner came to Pittsburgh in 1900 after three seasons with Louisville, a franchise that had disbanded. He played with the Bucs until 1917 and ended his career with a .329 average, and 101 homers. Wagner coached the Pirates from 1933 through 1951. He ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in 11 offensive categories.

NO. 40 — DANNY MURTAUGH . . . Born, October 8, 1917 in Chester, Pa., died December 2, 1976 in Chester. Threw and batted righthanded. A second baseman with the Phillies, Braves and Pirates (1941-43, 46-51), Danny Murtaugh was one of the most successful managers in Pirate history. He managed the Bucs in four different stints during 15 seasons between 1957 and 1976. During that time he became one of only 36 managers to win 1,000 games, compiling a record of 1,115-950, his win total ranking second on the Pirate all-time list to Fred Clarke's 1,422. He led the Pirates to four Eastern Division crowns and two World Series Championships (1960 and 1971). He was named The Sporting News Manager of the Year in 1960 and 1970.

DID YOU KNOW . . . Before Dick Williams accomplished the feat in 1984, Bill McKechnie was the only man to manage three different franchises in the World Series. McKechnie managed the Pirates in the 1925 Series; the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1928 classic and the Cincinnati Reds in 1939 and 1940. The '25 Pirates and '40 Reds were world champions. Williams managed the Boston Red Sox in the 1967 World Series, the Oakland A's in the 1972 and 1973 Classics and the San Diego Padres in 1984. Both Oakland clubs won world championships.

PIRATE DIAMOND CLUB

The Pirates' Diamond Club was formed on Feb. 4, 1986 to provide an annually growing foundation of advance season ticket sales.

After its first season, the Diamond Club has extended its purpose to include advance and in-season group sales. Originally patterned after the Kansas City Royal Lancers and the Baltimore Orioles' Designated Hitters, the Pirates' Diamond Club has formed its own identity as a primary season ticket and group sales arm of the organization.

Last season, some 45 Diamond Club volunteers sold over 60,000 tickets. A Diamond Room has been constructed within the stadium for members of the organization and there are social functions scheduled throughout the season. In addition, members who reach challenging sales quotas benefit from attractive incentives.

Bob Derda is the Diamond Club Director. He can be contacted at (412) 323-5044.
